

Program Educational Objectives (PEOs)

1. To enable the graduates with technical expertise so that they are able to provide solutions to various problems in the broad area of water resources.
2. To enable the graduates to become leaders both in their profession and other activities by equipping them with required attitude, skills, values and make them adaptable to global professional environment.
3. To inculcate a humane insight and outlook in graduates so that they understand the implications of technology on society.

Program Outcomes (POs)

PO1: An ability to independently carry out research /investigation and development work to solve practical problems.

PO2: An ability to write and present a substantial technical report/document.

PO3: Students should be able to demonstrate a degree of mastery over the area of Water Resources Development & Irrigation Engineering.

PO4: An ability to apply modern tools such as different computer software, modern instrumentation to support the application for solving problem to Water Resources Development & Irrigation Engineering.