Organized by

Department of Humanities and Social Sciences

National Institute of Technology
Raipur-492010 (Chhattisgarh)

About the Institute:

National Institute of Technology, Raipur situated in the capital of Chhattisgarh, has proven to be 'avant-garde' in the field of science and technology over the past few decades in this region. The foundation-laying ceremony was presided by the first President of India, Hon'ble Dr. Rajendra Prasad on September 14, 1956. Initially, the institute started with two departments namely Metallurgical and Mining Engineering. The institute later expanded with the inauguration of the campus building by the late Prime Minister, Hon'ble Pt. Jawahar Lal Nehru on March 14, 1963. It was on December 1, 2005 that it was distinguished as the National Institute of Technology. It is well connected with Mumbai, Delhi and all metro cities by regular flights and is on the main Howrah-Mumbai railway route. The institute is 5 kms from the Raipur railways station and 18 kms from airport on NH-6, the Great Eastern Road.

About the Department:

The Department of Humanities and Social Sciences is dedicated to providing a well-rounded education by offering insights into the different facets of human experience. It prepares the students with a set of skills that are suitable for a broad range of professional fields such as entrepreneurship, innovation, communication, sociology, linguistics, literature, yoga.
