About Us

National Institute of Technology Raipur situated in the capital of Chhattisgarh, has proven to be 'avant-garde' in the field of science and technology over past few decades in this region. The foundation of the institute was laid by Hon'ble President Dr. Rajendra Prasad on 14th September 1956. The institute started with two departments namely Metallurgical and Mining Engineering. Later the inauguration of the Institute building was done by our Prime Minister Hon'ble Pt. Jawahar Lal Nehru on 14th March 1963. From 1st December 2005, the institute has become the National Institute of Technology. The institute is 5 km from the Raipur railways station and 18 km from airport on NH-6, the Great Eastern Road. The Department of Humanities and Social Sciences strives to shape the personalities of students who belong from both technical and non technical fields by enhancing their use of language.
