Abhinay, The Dramatics Club of NIT Raipur, came into existence on 2015, with the sole purpose of creating and aiding an environment of drama and related culture in the college.

It provides platform for young and talented artists of the college, specially in the field of drama and acting, cinematography, video making/editing etc.

As every year, Abhinay The Dramatics Club participated in Goonj- The street play competition in central India's largest fest 'Eclectika 2020'. Goonj marks the beginning of eclectika and is one of the major attractions in the entire 3 day event. We were overwhelmed that the judge for the event was Arvind Gaur, one of the most prolific writers and performers of Nukkad Natak and has been a famous personality since decades. Abhinay The Dramatics Club, within the rules of the of the competition, presented a nukkad on the theme “Kon Banega JOKER”.

The stage was lit by various other teams from different colleges and clubs. The enthusiasm was worth seeing around the performance arena. The nukkad aimed to highlight that one should not run according to the demands of the society, instead focus on their true self and inner talents. It also emphasised on the fact that ‘a book cannot be judged by its cover’ and that one should not become a joker under society’s pressure and parameters set by the society. Taking the audience along with us, we made everyone realise that the society that we are actually blaming of these parameters, is actually us, it is all of us that constitute this society. This chain of victimization and conviction can be broken only if all of us join hands. The message was responded with huge cheer and applause from the audience. The team of Abhinay were Runners up of the competition, but the motive was fulfilled, the audience was enthralled and team was highly enthusiastic and radiated their energy to the fullest. We also received gift hampers and books of Arvind Gaur after the performance.

Rank Achieved: Runner-Up
